

Students Win 2nd Place in Speech Competition

By Ting Lai (6B), Ceci Chan (5C) and Jackson Wan (4C)

On the 2nd of December, some P5 and P6 girls were in an English Speaking Competition in Tuen Mun Town Hall. They won second place.

Since the start of September they practised hard for the speaking competition. There were about 50 people in their group, and Miss Sean and Miss Leung trained the girls.

The teachers chose a poem called “We are the Year Six Girls” for the girls to read. In the weeks before the competition the teachers trained the girls every day. Miss Sean said, “The girls practised hard.”

On the competition day they set off for Tuen Mun Town Hall at 3:55 pm and waited for the event to start. There were five teams in the competition and the girls were the first team to read their poem. They read very loudly and the judges thought that they read it very well. They got 87 marks out of 100. Bibi Hung in 5A said, “We practised hard, so I am happy we got good marks.”

The winners got 88 marks, so the teams were very close.

Students Donate More Than $10,000

By Kelvin Hui (5E) and Henry Tsang (6D)

On the 27th of October, Lee Kam Primary School had a Mufti Day. The students wore the clothes that they liked and brought some money to donate to charity. All of the donations totalled $11,317!

The students donated the money on the ground floor of the school. They could give their money in the morning, at recess or after lunch. All of the money went to the charity and the charity will give it to people in need. Emily Fung, in 6D, said, “I donated $20. I hope the money can help the poor people.”

The students enjoyed not wearing their uniforms because their clothes are more colourful. Miss Luk, a teacher at Lee Kam, said, “I think this day is good because it gives students a chance to dress up in other clothes and we can help some people in need.”

Care Reporters Go To Hong Kong Observatory

By Ryan Ka (5B) and Cherry Sin (4B)

On the 8th of November, the Care Reporters from Lee Kam went to the Hong Kong Observatory. Members of Care Reporters from five other primary schools also joined this activity. They learned more about the Hong Kong Observatory on this trip.

At the Hong Kong Observatory, they saw different kinds of weather monitoring equipment. They also had an interview with the director of the Observatory, Mr Shun Chi Ming. He shared his thoughts about environmental protection.

Jason Law, one of the Care Reporters from 6D, said, "It was a valuable learning experience to me because I could learn more about nuclear power, and we got some gifts from there too."

Mr Chong, the teacher in charge of the Care

Reporters, said, "The trip was very meaningful." He thought it was great.

All of the children felt very happy about this trip.

Students Have Hip-Hop Dance Lessons

By Mavis Ma (4A) and Joshua Ho (5E)

In the three P.E. lessons after exams, the students of Lee Kam Primary School in P4-P6 had hip-hop dance lessons. They danced and learned more about hip-hop dance. They danced happily with their teacher, Miss Katy.

The students needed to do some warm ups and then they could dance. They learned how to do the whole dance over the three lessons. In the third lesson, they got in groups and performed for each other. The music of the dance was "Just Go" by Tat Dik.

Some of them enjoyed the lessons very much and had a wonderful time. Natalie Mi from 4A said, "I think hip-hop is fun. I enjoyed the lessons. I like Miss Katy! She is very nice. I want to join the hip-hop group."

Some students did not like dancing. Alice Liu from 4A said, "I didn't enjoy the hip-hop lessons because I think I can't dance well. The teacher was kind though and she taught me a lot."

Mr Liu, a P.E. teacher at Lee Kam Primary School, said, "I like hip-hop dance more than other dance because it is cool. This was the first time we learned hip-hop dancing and 6B was the best. Miss Katy will teach the hip-hop dance team."

The school wanted the students to try the dancing because they want them to join the hip-hop dance group.

A Fun Tree Trip

By Smiling Po (5B) and Nicole Lai (5B)

Lee Kam students had a trip to look at trees in October. All of the different classes went to different places and had a fun day. They went with their teachers and classmates and took the school bus to the different places.

P1 went to Tuen Mun Park and P2 went to Park Promenade Nature Trail. P3 went to Inspiration Lake Nature Trail and P4 went to Victoria Park. They all walked around and saw many trees and flowers.

The P5 students went to Kowloon Park. They learned a lot of things about trees there. They learned that they should protect the trees that are hurt. They took many photos and thought the tree trip was interesting.

Angie Chui, in 5C, said, "The tree trip was fun this year and we learned we should take care of the trees because they are important to us."

Miss So, an English teacher at Lee Kam, went to Kowloon Park with the P5 students. She enjoyed the trip and said, "There were many beautiful flowers and trees and they brought us fresh air."

P6 students went to New Life Farm. They learned how to plant vegetables. After they finished their work, they bought some fresh vegetables.

The day of the tree trip was great!

Road Safety Patrol At Lee Kam

By Catherine Shi (4E) and Gordan Lee (5C)

The Road Safety Patrol group helps students to learn about road safety.

The students in the Road Safety Patrol meet every Monday after school for one hour. There are about 50 students in the group and they need to wear the Road Safety Patrol's uniform.

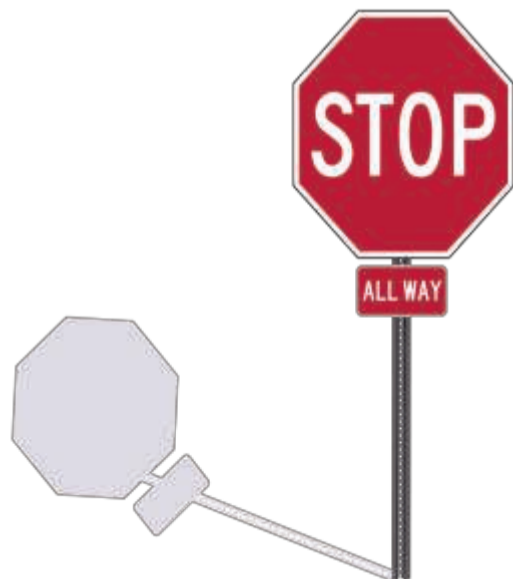

The Road Safety Patrol group practises

After the students learn about road safety, they sometimes go out of the school to do activities like patrol competitions.

Ryan Hui from 4E said, "I joined the group when I was in primary three. I joined because I wanted to learn about road safety. I have learned many things. I think it is exciting and I will continue being in the group next year."

The Road Safety Patrol is one of the Lee Kam students' favourite activities. There are many students who want to join each year.

Students Learn Important Moral

By Stephanie Chow (5A), Celia Tsang (5C) and Vienne Chiu (5A)

On the 1st of November, 2013, a play called Agent Penny and Will Power came to Lee Kam Primary School. In this play students learned how to use their Octopus card correctly.

The play was performed by a group named Jumbokids and it was on in the school hall.

The play was about a young girl name Rice Ball. In the play a bad man tried to make her buy some expensive things like stationery, food and video games on her octopus card. Agent Penny and Will Power helped Rice Ball by showing her how to use her card responsibly. Agent Penny told them that they need to know the difference between what is "need" and what is "want".

Tiffany Mok from 5C said, "I liked this play because it was funny and this play helped us to learn. It showed us how to use our Octopus card correctly."

The moral of this play is that you should always use your Octopus card correctly.
