

One-off Grant for Promotion of Self-directed Language Learning (English Language)

2025-2027

Method of Consulting Teachers: English Development Meeting & English Panel Meeting
Number of Classes Offered: 30 classes

Item	Focus Areas	Strategies /Actions	Expected Benefits	Timeline	Required Resources	Success Criteria	Evaluation Methods	Responsible Person
Enhance students' language abilities	Improve students' speaking skills	AI Individual Training Programs: - Invest in AI-driven language learning platforms that offer personalized training on school-based topics (P. 1-P. 3 Speaking Booklets, P. 4-P. 6 English Workshop Topics Enhancement) - Allocate funds for subscriptions or licenses for tools like speech recognition and feedback systems	Promote language efficiency and enhance students' speaking skills and engagement	Stage 1 2025-2026 Stage 2 2026-2027	Program cost: $60,000-140,000 *Depending on the number of tasks, target levels/ students and the duration of the programme	Over 70% of students participate in this program	1. (Pre (1 st Oral Exam)- and Post (2 nd Oral Exam) - Assessments before and after the implementation of the AI programs to measure improvements in student performance. 2. Assess students' performance, including evaluation reports provided by the platform and school speaking exam results	English Language Department (Gigi & Joanne)
					Subtotal: $60,000-140,000

Item	Focus Areas	Strategies /Actions	Expected Benefits	Timeline	Required Resources	Success Criteria	Evaluation Methods	Responsible Person
Enhance students' language abilities	To cultivate a rich reading culture, enhance literacy skills, and promote a lifelong love of reading among students in Key Stage 1	Revise the Home Reading Program: - Purchase a diverse range of books for P.1-3, including fiction, non-fiction, and multicultural literature for all P.1 - P.3 classes. - Create themed reading packs for different levels, ensuring a mix of genres and authors. - Allocate funds for book-related activities (e.g., reading passports, incentives for students).	Create a rich and supportive reading environment that nurtures students' literacy development and fosters a lasting appreciation for reading.	Stage 1 2025-2026 Stage 2 2026-2027	Program cost: $20,000	- A measurable percentage of students advances to higher reading levels over the academic year. - Students actively and consistently participate in maintaining their reading logs throughout the semester	1. Use grade-level benchmarks to evaluate student progress in reading fluency and comprehension 2. Assess students' performance in reading comprehension and revise comprehensive questions to facilitate students' progress	English Language Department (Joanne & Winnie)
					Subtotal: $20,000

Item	Focus Areas	Strategies /Actions	Expected Benefits	Timeline	Required Resources	Success Criteria	Evaluation Methods	Responsible Person
Enhance teachers' and students' professional development	Expenditure for English Club, Workshops & related English resources	English Club -Students can cultivate their English skills and boost their confidence by participating in the English Club's regular meetings and various activities. This allows them to learn and interact in a relaxed and enjoyable environment. Workshops - Organize workshops focusing on specific topics such as storytelling, creative writing, or poetry for professional teacher training. - Hire guest speakers or authors to conduct interactive sessions. for students' appreciation. - Include materials and resources for the English Department.	Contribute to a vibrant learning environment that enhances language skills, fosters creativity, and builds confidence among both students and teachers.	Stage 1 2025-2026 Stage 2 2026-2027	Program cost: $40,000	- Students attend at least 70% of the club meetings - Positive student feedback on workshops and interactive sessions from both teachers and students.	1. Attendance records and observation of student interactions during club activities to assess engagement, participation, and social dynamics. 2. Gather feedback from students on their engagement and interest in literature following workshops, focusing on changes in their attitudes.	English Language Department (Joanne & Gigi)
					Subtotal: $40,000

Item	2024-2025 Budget Income	2024-2025 Budget Expenditure	2025-2026 Budget Expenditure	2026-2027 Budget Expenditure
	$200,000
Enhance students' language abilities (Speaking)			100,000	40,000
Enhance students' language abilities (Reading)			10,000	10,000
Enhance teachers' and students' professional development			20,000	20,000
		2024-2025 Budget Surplus $200,000	2025-2026 Budget Surplus $70,000	2026-2027 Budget Surplus $0